The U.S. Army Concert Band

The U.S. Army Concert Band has a worldwide reputation for extraordinary musicianship in a variety of styles ranging from classical to popular.

Headquartered in Washington, D.C., The Army Concert Band performs outdoor concerts during the summer months on the grounds of the Ellipse (near The White House) and on the west steps of the U.S. Capitol. Then, during the cooler months, full-ensemble concerts and individual recitals are held inside The Army Band's training facility, Brucker Hall, on Fort Myer in Arlington, Virginia.

In an effort to promote international goodwill, The 65-piece traditional concert band has performed joint concerts with the Soviet Army, the Russian Navy and the Ukrainian Navy. Concert Band musicians, many with master's and doctoral degrees in their instruments, have appeared in military tattoos in Scotland, Sweden, Holland, Norway, Australia and Japan.

The power and repertoire of the concert band is greatly enhanced when combined with other musical ensembles of The Army Band, such as The Army Herald Trumpets and The Army Chorus.
